Polygon Rules On Questions

Polygon, inter-fraternity governing body, held a meeting Nov. 18, in the Commuters' Room in Quinn Hall. Those present included Dr. Browning, Dr. Cheadle, and Mr. Chester Berry. The by-laws committee gave a report and declared that the constitution of Polygon is satisfactory as it stands.

Discussion was held as to the next rushing season. President Donald Roberts, of S. A. E., appointed a committee of four to look into the matter thoroughly and suggest the most opportune time to hold the next rush season. This committee consists of Kenneth McKenzie, of Beta Phi, Kenneth Froberg, of T. K. E., Albert Starr, of Phi Sigma, and Daniel Saltzman of AEPL.

The academic status of various pledges was clarified. It was revealed that students at extension schools at Providence and Bristol are eligible for pledging during the rush season.

Among the motions passed were those to have the picture of the Polygon representatives taken for the Grist and that a certificate from the registrar could be obtained by veterans who received a semester's credit for work at accredited institutions, provided their average was "C." It was also decided that the houses would continue to pay for Polygon keys for their senior representatives.

An inter-fraternity sports committee was appointed to confer with a hut committee and the Athletic Department in regard to forming intra-mural basketball leagues. This committee consists of David Hanna, P. I. K., Kenneth McKenzie, Beta Phi, and Tom Roche, Theta Chi.

BAND TO GIVE CHRISTMAS CONCERT

On December 4th at 8:00 p. m., a Christmas concert will be given at Edwards Hall by the Rhode Island State College Band under the direction of Mr. Arnold Claire. Now that the band has been fully organized, a varied program is arranged, including numbers by both classical and contemporary composers.

Following the concert, there will be a session of carol singing under the direction of student leaders.

Notice

A larger circulation staff is urgently needed to deliver the Beacon to the various housing units each week. If YOU are interested get in touch with Dick Serdjenian at Phi Mu Delta immediately.

STUDENT UNION DRIVE EXTENDED

Because many students want to contribute to the War Memorial Union Fund, but cannot do so within the time limit allowed, the Student Union Committee has decided to extend the drive until December 6.

Our goal has been set for $1,000. To date, we have a total of $380.71. If you have already given and it didn't hurt, try giving just a little bit more. If you are living on campus and have not given your dollar, see your house captain at once. Commuters who wish to contribute can give their money to Raymond Rathbun at Theta Chi, or leave it at the Alumni Office in Green Hall. It is obvious that even if each one of us gets behind this drive, it is going to be a hard struggle—so let's all get in there and GIVE!

Returns from many houses have not been received as yet, but the following are the results of the drive to date.

House	Captains	Students	Pct
Chi Omega—Koning	30	100%
Theta Chi—D'Aquanno	42	100%
Alpha Ep. Pi—Frieberg	40	93%

Engineers Meet

The meeting of the student chapter of A. S. C. E. was in Adams Lounge at 7:30 p. m., Nov. 20.

Plans are being made for a Christmas dance on Friday, Dec. 13th. Ken Keifer is chairman.

Slides on interesting bridges in history were shown and explained by Frank Pysz.

Movies were also shown on the collapse of the Tacoma Narrows Bridge.

UNION FOR ALL

Well, it's here at last—that place we've all been looking for where we can knock off from the books for a little while, and relax by playing pool, ping-pong, cards, or just plain sitting. We were all full of wonder and doubts as the new temporary union mushroomed up by Rodman, but now our doubts are gone, and we all think the new Student Union is "tops."

The activities, including the aforementioned plus dancing, playing records, and, of course, having a bite to eat, are available on week days from 10 a. m. to 10:30 p. m. Saturday and Sunday the Union is closed from 12 to 1 p. m. and from 5 to 6:30 p. m. to allow the two directors a little time off. As soon as more help is available, an effort will be made to extend these activity hours on week-ends, when the Union is most needed to provide a get-together place for those loyal Rhodyites who spend their week-ends on Campus.

The Student Union is now operating on a limited budget due to the fact that the Veterans' Administration payments to the college have not as yet been made. The deduction of the Student Activities Tax from this source will greatly alleviate the budget problem. Much of the equipment now in use at the Union was purchased personally by the directors for our pleasure. There is a great expense connected with the operation as is indicated by the fact that an expenditure of $700 was necessary in acquiring the pool tables alone. For this reason, it is hoped that an appropriation will be made soon to ease the present budget.

The canteen hours are from 3 to 5 p. m. and 7:30 to 10:30 p. m. except on Sunday when food is available between 6:30 and 10:30. These hours, too will be extended as soon as refrigeration is added to the kitchen unit.

The central room is to be used for cards, listening to the radio, dancing, and lounging in general. The pool and ping-pong tables are used on a half hourly basis to insure fairness to all in their use of these facilities.

The reading room has made subscriptions to their daily newspapers, three Sunday papers, and ten to fifteen magazines, including Life, Time, Esquire, and Reader's Digest.

A series of competitive events are to take place during the season. These will include pool, ping-pong, checkers, and chess tournaments. Plans are already under way for an all Campus bridge tournament. The newly formed Union Committee is planning these and other events to make the Student Union a real source of enjoyment to all.

Large Union dances will be held at Lippitt Hall on Friday or Saturday nights when other house functions do not provide recreation for that particular evening.

Panhellenic Tea Held for Frosh

The great room of Eleanor Roosevelt Hall was the scene of an after-dinner coffee Nov. 19, at 7 p. m., sponsored by the Panhellenic Association.

Freshman girls and all others eligible for rushing were the guests and were introduced to the presidents of the five sororities. Leaders who represented their sororities in the reception line were Dorothy Peterson, Chi Omega; Mary-Elizabeth Davies, Delta Zeta; Virginia Eddy, Eta Phi; Elsa Isenberg, Sigma Delta Tau; Hope Byrne, Sigma Kappa, and Elspeth Hart, president of the Association.

Co-chairmen of the affair were Gloria Amore and Doris Catanio of Eta Phi. Kay Markel, Sigma Delta Tau, assisted Gloria Amore in pouring.

$12,430 GIVEN TO UNION FUND

The Patrons Association, parent-faculty-alumni organization of the college, has reached the half-way mark of its $25,000 goal for the Student Union fund.

The sum of $12,430.41 was reported by campaign headquarters last week-end. A considerable increase in this total is expected by the end of the canvass on Nov. 30, so that various captains throughout the State can get in their complete returns.

A memorial gift of $750 in honor of S/Sgt. John J. Flynn, Jr., of West Warwick, who was killed in action in France on June 1, 1945, is among the latest contributions. A member of Delta Alpha Psi fraternity, he had completed two years at college before entering the service.

Another large contributor is Otto Seidner, of Westerly, whose gift of $500 was also announced. A $300 gift from Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Whitaker of Rumford, and $100 gifts from Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. R. Pieri, of Pawtucket, Ben M. Harriet, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lazarus are among the donations amounting to $2864 listed in last week's report.

The Patrons' objective is the sum necessary to build and furnish the main lounge in the new Union.

ALPHA ZETAS INITIATE THREE

Edward Thayer, Stewart Hart and Francis Muller were initiated into Alpha Zeta, the honorary agricultural fraternity on Nov. 20, during an initiation banquet ceremony at the Kingston Inn.

During a short business meeting following the ceremony, Wilfred Anger was chosen to represent the Rhode Island Chapter at the Alpha Zeta Biennial Conclave in Denver, Colorado, Dec. 31 through Jan. 2.

Dean Mason H. Campbell was the after-dinner speaker, giving an interesting summary on the life of Dr. Theobald Smith, a world famous agricultural research man.

Among the guests present was Dean Emeritus George E. Adams, who has been active many years in Alpha Zeta. Faculty and alumni guests were also present to witness the ceremony and enjoy the steak dinner.

The new initiates bring the total active membership up to 13.

FINAL CLASS ELECTIONS SCHEDULED FOR TUESDAY

The Sachems are happy to announce that the primary elections of Nov. 20, were fair and square all around, and thank all the students for their honesty and integrity.

The results of the primaries, which will be voted for in the final elections, are as follows: For the senior class, the five highest men are: John Chiaverini, John Edwards, John Flynn, Manooq Heditsian, and Schroeder. The three highest women are Dorothy Gray, Antoinette Lewis and Ann Rivello.

Highest five men in the junior class are Ferdinand Comolli, Elery French, David Hanna, Joseph Rock, and Warren Salter. High three girls are Barbara Knowe, Lois Kyle and Alice Wallander.

For the sophs, James Barr, Dan Cashman, Robert D. Young, William Haack, and Carlos Hill were elected. Shirley Buswell, Beverly Hopps, and Joan Sawyer were high three for the women.

Final elections will be held in the same place, Lippitt Hall, tomorrow, from 10:00 a. m. to 6:30 p. m. Elections are conducted by the Sachems, advised by Dr. Mary Reilly and Dr. Crawford.

VETS DISCUSS AMENDING LAWS

On Nov. 14, the Veterans' Association of R. I. State College held the second meeting of the semester. On the docket had been the removal of a clause in the constitution which fostered "absolute democracy" in operating the committee. In the past, calling the entire veterans' body together was plausible because only a few were attending college. Now, with well over 1000, it is impractical to assemble the entire body for discussion of a problem. Amending the constitution to alleviate this situation was again discussed.

A proposal was made to invite the national veterans' associations to present their programs to the committee for consideration. The ineffectiveness of a purely local veterans committee was pointed out as one of the factors of the inactivity of the organization. Operating on a national scale will bring added interest from the veterans attending State and it will foster mature thinking about problems of the United States.

A definite policy is in the making for the Veterans' Association and within the next few weeks the program will be presented to the veterans and the administration for approval. The veterans committee, invites suggestions and criticism of any of the students and faculty. The veteran has a definite place on the college campus and through unity and energy directed in the correct manner we can help to bring to Kingston the college that it so rightly deserves.

FRIENDS HONOR MISS TUCKER

More than 100 faculty members, their wives and lifelong associates paid tribute Saturday night to Miss Lucy Comins Tucker, retired registrar and faculty secretary of Rhode Island State College, at a testimonial dinner at Lippitt Hall.

Miss Tucker, who has been connected with the college for more than 50 years as a student, secretary to the president, registrar and faculty secretary, was presented with a handbag at the conclusion of the dinner.

Tribute was paid Miss Tucker by Dr. Carl R. Woodward, the last of the five college presidents she served during her career. Dr. Woodward spoke of the appreciation he felt for the assistance Miss Tucker gave him from her knowledge.

INTERFAITH GROUP PLANS FOR YEAR

At the meeting of the Interfaith Council, November 18, further plans for the year's program were made. An informal dance, sponsored by the council, will be held Friday evening, Dec. 13, just prior to the Christmas recess.

Members of the social committee in charge of this dance are: Helen French, chairman, Lorraine Bursley, Mary Dee and Julius Krasner.

In addition, extensive plans are being made for a student assembly, sponsored by the Interfaith Council, to be held on January 8. This assembly is to be dedicated to the World Student Service Fund with an outstanding speaker describing the challenging conditions which face students in war-torn countries. Members of this assembly committee are: Dorcas Eldred, chairman, Dan Cashman, Elaine Harriet, Pat Records, Joy Palm and Lorraine Bursley.

CO-ED RIFLE TEAM CHOSEN

Riflery is a favorite sport among the co-eds here as well as it is with the men. Manager for this year is Marie Marquardt, with Sergeant McVae as coach. Every Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday from 1 to 3 p. m., Rodman Hall is visited by feminine rifle enthusiasts, to learn and practice on the range.

On Wednesday, November 20 the official team for the semester was chosen by Sergeant McVae on the basis of consistent high scorers among the active participants. The team will have special additional training to put Rhody's girls' rifle team on the top.

Those chosen are Mary DeLuca, Arlene Eisenberg, Carol Emerson, Joyce Gammon, Beverly Hopps, Mary Hudson, Anna Luzon, Marie Marquardt, Mary Francis Olney, and Kay Shute. Their alternates are Rita Bearlieu, Jeanne Sundquist, Barbara Roussin, Therese St. Bernmaine, and Dorothy Turner.

A postal match with Drexel Institute of Technology of Philadelphia, Pa., has been arranged during the week of December 2 through 7. Ten girls will fire, and the five highest scores will be exchanged with the opponents.

STUDENT ACTIVITY PLAN DISCUSSED

The Faculty-Student Activities Committee held a meeting last Wednesday night. The most important subject discussed was the formation of a Student Committee of Undergraduate Activities for the purpose of coordinating and planning student activities.

It is to be composed of one member from each activity organization such as Glee Club, Phi Delta, Portia, etc. This large body would be broken down into several small committees, each concerning a specific activity. The committee, as a whole, would assist in planning programs for the Union.

GIVE US THE ARTS DEGREE

Today Rhode Island State is the only New England state college not offering a Bachelor of Arts degree through its own educational system. Every other state-sponsored college in New England offers at least a course terminating with this degree and in many cases there are over a dozen varied fields that may be chosen as majors.

We are constantly reminded that Rhode Island has its share of liberal arts schools and that the population of the state does not warrant an addition to the state college facilities. We are also told that the two colleges now offering the B. A. degree in this state could accommodate an increase in enrollment and that the demand for the degree is not present.

There would be no argument if these presumptions were plausible, but facts disprove them. In the last available figures the average state had nearly 40 per cent more college students per thousand population than our own state. This gives us a potential group of citizens who are without a doubt capable of college work.

If we looked at other states, we would see that they have an even higher number of private liberal arts schools. Massachusetts State College for one is within a ten-mile radius of three prominent schools of such nature, but still manages to offer a B. A. degree with twelve possible major subjects.

We must also realize that the tuition fee for both colleges in the state which offer the arts degree is substantially higher than our own. One of these two schools is limited to men students. As a result a large number of people from Rhode Island, especially women, are required to seek further education outside the borders of the state, particularly if they desire to follow the liberal course.

The most significant reason, which is yet unmentioned, is the well organized liberal studies curriculum which our college already has and which is proving so popular. As proof of its popularity the figure of applications for the liberal arts curriculum speaks for itself. In the fall of 1944 there were 50 applicants; in 1945, 131 applicants, and in 1946, 500 applied. Of these, 33, 50 and 67 students were admitted each year respectively. (These figures include only Freshman applicants.)

The course of study varies so slightly from the usual arts curriculum that few additions to the present courses would be necessary for the granting of the arts degree.

The call for the degree is present. A nearly adequate curriculum is present. What else is needed but action by the authorized persons involved?

If this B. A. degree were added there should be no prominent barrier to the establishment of the UNIVERSITY OF RHODE ISLAND. If states having one-half the population can well support universities, why can't it be accomplished here now? The only remaining state college in New England today is Massachusetts State College which does offer the B. A. degree and is well on the way to a university status. The students enrolled in the liberal studies curriculum should not be alone in their concern over the addition of the degree. It would mean a great deal to us all at Rhode Island State to be backed by a university rather than a college degree. The students now on campus would like this college degree a university degree.

LET'S GROW UP

How about it, kids—we know it's fun to collect things and have souvenirs of dances—but is it necessary? Seems as if some of the local souvenir hunters have become too ambitious and are now the possessors of several pieces of property that should be returned to their rightful owners!

It all started Friday night, November 8th, at the Soph Hop, when Lippitt gym was decorated with various team and college pennants and banners. The temptation was too great for some people and now several banners are missing. These banners had been loaned by students to help towards the success of one of your dances—there was no doubt in the owners' minds that they would be returned. Don't disappoint them by failing to return any that may have been too tempting to you. If your guest from off campus made off with one, show your good sportsmanship by trying to get it back here again. Any banners will be gratefully accepted by Pat Grant, Delta Zeta, or Beverly Hopps, Chi Omega, and they will be returned to those they were borrowed from.

Some banners cannot be replaced, so come on, let's be mature about the whole idea and return them.

Greek Letter Releases

S. A. E.

A buffet supper dance was held last Friday and it proved to be one of the most successful affairs of the house this season.

The first pledge formal in many years will be held this Wednesday evening and from all reports will be strictly on the beam. "Albert" Stroeckle has removed his long-unworn "tails" from mothballs and plans to lead the house in style.

Our basketball team is ready for all comers and would like to hear from any organization interested in a hoop event—the sooner, the better.

Already in our minds is a gala Christmas party. Pano Poulos intends to add spark to the affair by reading Yule tales he learned while being based in ye olde England.

Delta Alpha Psi

Delta Alpha Psi announces a semi-formal dance for November 27, in honor of the Pledges. Everyone is invited to attend.

Patty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Clark, house father and mother, is learning more about men than women will ever hope to know. And at her age, too!

Jim Boyle, house prexy, promises information that should be enlightening to the co-eds in the future. Watch him, gals, he may be available for plucking.

We are sorry to report that one of our astute members, Gene Liberali, has taken his jokes and learning to the city for operation in the business world.

Ray Geisser has a "two wheel personality" so he was unanimously chosen as transportation officer.

Eddie Kreischer threatens to put his room off limits unless we supply the coffee and sugar for our midnight snacks.

Needless to say you should "never worry about the ole Moose." Which one of you girls from Sigma is giving Gus Lusi a bad time or did I misinterpret his mournful look?

P. I. K.

The house has pledged Sal Cento, Porky Darelus, Mike Balzano, Tom Keenan, and Hal Hagopian since the advent of the semester.

Eight hopefuls have survived Mr. Keaney's latest cut of the basketball team. They are: Jack Allen, Al Palmieri, Hank Zabierek, Lou Kelley, Dick Rutherford, John Smith, Walt Bergman, and Red James.

The launching of the S. S. James Dubee Victory took place at Jamestown over the week-end. Assisting the aforementioned James Dugue was Bob Hanna.

The pledge dance is scheduled for November 27th, with Tommy Manno furnishing the music.

The house held its annual riding party last week-end, and a good time was had by all.

Phi Mu News

The informal initiation of Phi Mu's pledges was held on Nov. 16. They will become brothers on Dec. 8 at a formal ceremony.

The Pledge Dance this year will be held in a harvest setting. Pledge Social Chairman Jimmy Bari has the situation well in hand. The dance will be preceded by a scavenger hunt. Patrons are to be Brother Al Owens, Brother (Prof.) Brooks Anderson, and their wives.

Plans are underway for a banquet to be held in the near future. The committee will include George Opdyke, Bill Brown, Ken Jorjor-ian, Bud Henley, and Carl Barrie.

A ping-pong tournament is currently in full swing and the table is never vacated except at meal time. It begins to look as if a dark horse will win.

Phi Mu Delta will have a hockey team in the intramural league this winter if the athletic department forms a schedule for the fraternities.

The Mother's Club recently presented the House with a gift of sixty dollars to be used for house furnishings.

T. K. E. News

The TEKE steamrollers have really been rolling. With football victories over AEP1 (14-0) and Phi Mu Delta (18-6) fresh in our minds, we have scheduled both teams in the near future. Our basketball prospects for a stellar season seem justified in a pre-game victory over Theta Chi (67-48). Football or basketball games can be arranged through Dick Sargeson.

The province Hegemon was down last week to inspect the chapter house. The Mother's Club held their monthly meeting last Thursday. They had dinner and then inspected the house to see if we needed any new curtains.

Plans for the pledge formal are now complete and it promises to be a gala affair tomorrow night. Our pledges and members are getting tuxes by begging, borrowing and stealing.

Union for All

Don't forget to get acquainted with Miss Browning and Mr. Berry who are the directors at the Union. They are both grand people who are very much concerned with your enjoying the facilities offered by our Union. Any suggestions or ideas you have about the Union will be most welcome.

So there you have it—the story of our new Student Union. See you there — having a wonderful time!

ledge of the college when he first assumed the post of president.

Other testimonials were given by A. Livingston Kelley, chairman of the board of trustees of State colleges, and Mrs. Frederick S. Ackroyd, of the College Alumni Association.

Dr. Harold W. Browning, vice president of the college gave reminiscences of his long association with Miss Tucker at the college.

The presentation of the handbag was made by Prof. L. Edith Andrews of the college faculty. Dr. Everett P. Christopher, vice-dean of agriculture, was toastmaster. The invocation was delivered by the Rev. Frederick J. Bishop, pastor of the Kingston Congregational Church. Resolutions were presented to Miss Tucker by Dr. Lee C. Wilson of the college faculty.

Miss Tucker retired last June 30 after she had reached the compulsory retirement age. Miss Tucker, who was also faculty advisor of Chi Omega Sorority, thanked the group for the honor bestowed upon her.

Committee members arranging the dinner included Miss Andrews, Dr. Browning, Norman W. Butler, field, Charles A. Hall, Lillian B. Hudson, Dr. John C. Weidman, Mr. Wilson and Dr. Christopher, chairman.

Quadrangle Quotes

The Question: Should underclassmen automatically be charged on their term bills for Senior Grist?

Yes, I think it is a good memory of college days for all students, because some representation is given to every class. Gerry Denicourt, Commuter.

No, any extra fees, such as the Grist, should not go on the term bill. It should be one's privilege to purchase "extras" as one's budget will allow. Joyce DeMerchant—North Annex.

Yes, I think everyone derives pleasure from a record of his four years at college through the Grist and therefore, that we are not unduly imposed upon by prepayment of the Grist on our term bill. Helen E. Smith—North Annex.

No, each student is interested in his classmates (or should be), but who wants a book full of students from the Senior Class each year? My brother and I are both here at State. We'll end up with eight Grist. Burt Hall—Kingston.

Yes, because someday the underclassmen will be seniors and they'll appreciate the fact that underclassmen have to buy them. Winnie Kelley—E. R. Hall.

Yes, even though many of the seniors aren't known, it's all part of college and the Grist will be good souvenirs. Rita Boyle—East Hall.

No, Because I don't think all of the student body knows the seniors. Mary Avery—Commuter.

No, because many of the undergraduates have no interest in Senior class affairs. Deeb Sarkas—Phi Mu Delta.

Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of the Grist. We should give with an open heart in a manner similar to buying tuberculosis stamps. Fred Fifitnick—Huts.

No, underclassmen will eventually be seniors—"To each his own." Harold Himmean—Kingston.

Vin Smith, candidate for this year's Ram quintet, played against the Keeneymen last year when he sported the colors of the Quonset Flyers...

SENIORS TO SEE ALL HOOP GAMES

It was reported from the athletic office at the last Student Senate meeting, that due to the size of the student body, and also because of the crowded situation at the cafeteria at supertime, that a system of "first come, first served" for the basketball games would be extremely impractical.

Therefore, the Senate voted that the Seniors should see all of the games, because they have only a relatively short time in which to see our famous Rams play. It was then decided that the Juniors and Sophomores should alternate with the large freshman class for the home games.

The Juniors and Sophomores will see all the odd-numbered home games, while the Freshmen will see all the even numbered home games. The above system was arranged without first consulting the schedule of games, since this was believed to be the fairest way.

It was also ruled that everyone on his class night must be in the gym proper half an hour before the start of the game, or lose his priority to attend that game.

In the half hour before the game starts, empty seats that remain will be available, as rush seats, to students who aren't scheduled, by class to see the game.

A motion was made and passed that a three-man committee be appointed by the president of Student Senate, Ralph Potter, to work with Sachems concerning class elections. This committee consists of Kemp, St. Louis, and Wilson.

All Student Senate members were officially sworn in by Ralph Potter, president.

Sailors Plan Shore School

Norman Bridges was elected Commodore of the R. I. Boat Club at a meeting of the club last Monday. Election of other officers was as follows: Ralph Potter, vice commodore; Virginia Finch, secretary, and Phillip Mulligan, treasurer.

The club is attempting to start a shore school for all those interested in learning to sail. So all you lubbers, how about coming to the next boat club meeting to find out what's what on a sailboat?

Shall We Revive Mil Ball?

Before the war the campus honorary military society, Scabbard and Blade, each year held its Military Ball in February. Some students are discussing the possibility of reviving this formal affair. What do you think? The above photo was taken at the last pre-war affair when the Co-ed Colonel was honored by the student regiment.

Pennies from E. R. H.

That popular song of several years ago on the theme of "Pennies from Heaven" has its counterpart here in the idea of five Eleanor Roosevelt Hall girls who began saving their pennies for the Student Union War Memorial fund. Last week they brought to the fund office in Green Hall the sum of $16.50 all in pennies, neatly wrapped. The donors are Joan Stern, Pauline Carney, Mary Jo Fulford, Irene Levine and Barbara Alladice LaMarche, who was formerly of ERH before her marriage. That makes sense, girls.

Student-Faculty Get-Together

The Student-Faculty get-together will be at the home of Professor and Mrs. DeWolf, on North Road, next Sunday evening, December 1, from 5:00-7:00. There will be group singing and an informal discussion. Cocoa and sandwiches will be served. The committee for Sunday night's get-together consists of Robert Lenthion, chairman; Bill Haskell, Joyce DeMerchant, and Betty Wilde.

Plans are being made for turning the meeting on December 8 into a Christmas party at the church house. The time will be from 5:00 to 8:00 and will probably consist of games, carol singing and informal discussions. Watch for further announcements!

MARKSMEN WIN FIRST MATCH

Capt. Larry Davis fired a perfect target from the prone position last Tuesday, as the Men's Rifle Team opened its 1946-47 season against Norwich. Results of the postal match are to be announced this week.

Sgt. Frank L. Doggett, team coach, said that to his knowledge it was the only 100 ever scored at the Rodman Hall range. Davis was the first to fire for the record this season.

A complete schedule will be released as soon as New England College Rifle League officials forward one to team officials here. A list of non-league matches has already been arranged.

No Claims for $5

If Diogenes, the Greek philosopher who sought an honest man, could be reincarnated and come to Kingston, his sad heart might be gladdened, for perhaps here he might find that rare specimen. No one has come forth to claim the $5 gold piece which was found in the coke vending machine. Unless the owner can prove his rightful claim, the $5 will be given to the Memorial Student Union Fund, it was stated yesterday by Manager Richard Van Iderstine, of the South County bottling concern which operates the vending machines.

SPORT SIDELINES AND ODDITIES

The oddest result of a major football game was the 1922 Columbia-New York battle, which New York University won 7 to 6. Three days later the referee awarded the game to Columbia 6 to 2 on a technicality. But the record books still reveal that New York won and lost the game, and that Columbia also won and lost the same game!

In the Spring of 1944, the Yale football team trained without a coach or a football! Because of studies, the team could not attend regular Spring training. They were turned over to the swimming coach for indoor exercise, while the football coach stayed on his war factory job. It was spring football for Yale without a football!

There is a semi-pro baseball team in Virginia made up of nine brothers. Their initial names all begin with the letter "B" and another brother Bruce is the bat boy.

Do you know that loss of memory afflicts some of the best basketball mentors in the course of a game? Nat Holman, coach of the City College of New York, a few seasons ago, looked down the bench one game and motioned to the team captain, a four year member of the squad.

"Hey, you, what's your name?" Come over here, I want to talk to you," Nat shouted to his astonished captain.

RULES FOR BRIDGE TOURNEY RELEASED

Plans are nearly completed for a bridge tournament to be sponsored by the Student Union, starting December 10. Following are the rules as they stand now:

1. Any regularly enrolled student may participate.
2. Players will enter and play as partners. Change of partners after play has started will be permitted only under special permission.
3. Matches will be decided by high score at the conclusion of three rubbers, except in the semi-finals and finals, when high score at the end of five rubbers will determine winners.
4. Matches may be played at the Union or at any other place agreeable to both teams.
5. Winners must notify tournament officials of the results and scores of their matches.
6. Matches not played prior to the designated time limit for each round will be forfeited.
7. All play will be governed by the revised International Contract Bridge rules of April, 1943.
8. Entries may be made anytime in the near future, in person at the Union, or they may be mailed in. Addresses and telephone numbers should accompany mailed entries. All entries must be in by midnight, Dec. 7.

The winners of the tournament will be eligible for competing in the National Intercollegiate Bridge Tournament in Chicago on April 18 and 19. Results of each round will be posted at the Union.

SOPH CO-EDS WIN HOCKEY TOURNEY

The class tournament for Field Hockey which is a very underrated sport, was played off last Wednesday. The interest or curiosity in the game brought a large number of spectators to the hockey field.

The first game seemed to be a rather one-sided affair with the upperclassmen failing to score while the Sophs tallied three goals. The second game was won by the freshmen who seemed evenly matched with the upperclassmen but the Frosh won 1-0. The last game between the Sophs and Frosh was by far the fastest and most exciting. The Frosh had half of their girls out there with a loud cheering section but even their spirit couldn't prevent the Sophs from outscoring them 2-1.

The Sophs rightfully deserved the interclass championship for their team work, spirit and playing was rated almost perfect.

Frosh	Sophs
M. Anderson	M. Coyle
B. Aitken	C. Conlin
A. O'Neil	A. O'Bradovich
J. Williams	M. Jacobs
A. Louzon	L. Turner
A. Sweet	P. Gilbert

WINSLOW SPEAKS TO CHEMISTS

The guest speaker at the meeting of the Chemistry Society, which was held last Monday evening was Dr. Eugene Winslow. Dr. Winslow is a staff member of the Inorganic Chemistry Department at this college. The topic of the lecture was "Resonance." A discussion period followed the lecture.

Plans for forthcoming field trips were discussed and it was decided to hold a trip in the first part of December.

CO-ED CHATTER

The hay ride and hot dog roast held by North Annex last Friday night was a huge success. Chaperones for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Cruickshank and Mr. and Mrs. Allinson.

Congratulations to Bunny Turner—she is having a poem published in the Third Annual Anthology of College Poetry. Selections were made from thousands of poems submitted.

Captain and Mrs. Robert Chew of Jamestown have announced the engagement of their daughter, Mary Cady Chew, to Stephen Clark Jones of Smithfield. Cady has left college and is busy planning for her December 30 wedding. Best wishes Cady!

Shirley Seagal spent the week-end hosting in Wyoming, R. I.

Congratulations to Delores Rodriguez who was initiated into Eta Phi Sorority last Saturday afternoon.

Mary Field, a student at Mary Washington College in Virginia, was the guest of Jo Schora for a few days last week.

Last week-end the Eta Phi held its initiation ceremony for their former pledges: Delores Rodriguez, Hope Holden, Earlene Jewett, Eleanor Freehey, Debby Wilson, Mae Wertz and Betty Connaughton.

Ruth Lyons, who was on campus with us last year, came back for a visit on Tuesday.

Hope Holden entertained her sister, Betty, last Sunday. She's a younger edition of Hopie and quite smooth.

Congratulations to Dot Catano and Gloria Amore, co-chairmen for making the Pan-Hellenic coffee party last Tuesday evening such a success.

Elaine Harriet, Sigma Delta Tau, spent a week-end at Yale, attending the Yale-Princeton game and parties—Bobbie was the guest of Judy Gellinoff at Pembroke—Roz Braen attended the home-coming week-end at Tufts—Sybil attended the B. U. game and formal Saturday night.

What a bunch of wanderers the D. Z.'s have been lately! Lois Kyle traipsed to the city of New York and had a wonderful time. Troy, N. Y., was blessed by the presence of Pat Grant. And who received an invitation to a Harvard week-end but Candy Reynolds! The game (Harvard won... rah!) and the Victory Dance were wonderful. But she didn't see Lut Mesinger. It is funny, 'cause they both were at the same game? ? ?

What was it that made Delta Zeta so quiet this past week-end? Who was so obviously missing from the fold? None other than our president, Liz Davis. She made one of those infrequent visits home.

The two "Joyces" (Dawley and Sutcliffe) enjoyed a week-end at Tufts. They attended the "Interfraternity Dance" and from all reports it helped make a perfect week-end.

Many thanks to the girls from East Hall who helped to make the Vic Dance on November 22nd such a huge success! ... Seems that the honor system is working well with the freshmen but what about the upperclassmen?!! ... Barbara and Cilia Clark attended their grandparents' 50th Wedding Anniversary party in Boston last week-end ... Maggie Kenyon's eyes are still sparkling from her trip to New York last Thursday. Wissy Armstrong had a birthday party to end all parties. Happy birthday, Wissy! The Chi O's are all looking forward to their Thanksgiving vacation, not for the turkey alone, but also for the semi-formal dance to be given Friday, Nov. 29, at the R. I. Yacht Club by their alums. To all interested, see Dottie Peterson for tickets. Proceeds from this dance will go toward a rug fund for Chi Omega. Our alums really have been doing themselves proud. Seems they stuffed the Chi O arteries to the gills last Tuesday night when they gave their annual supper. Congratulations and carnations to our brand new initiates, Joanne Shellenberger and Barbara Neil. May Chi Omega always mean as much to them as it does to the rest of us. Nancy Waite has been singing "I'm In Love With Your Automobile,"—only, that ain't no car, that's a model T!

Eleanor Roosevelt Hall welcomes back their house Vice President Nancy Reynolds, after her week's illness. Dotti Chiruseide entertained Bette Beatty, a former State student, homecoming week-end. Queenie Heditsian has been doing some heavy entertaining lately—homecoming week-end, she had as her guest Natalie Williams, a former State girl—she also entertained Pat Campbell, Anna Guckian, Marie DeGugellis, all from Providence.

Jean Frankel from Simmons was Joan Stern's guest for the U-Conn. game.

Sigma Kappa held their annual Barn Dance last Saturday night in Lippitt. The SK's really turned in to farmerettes for the day, even to pitching hay and gathering cornstalks. Dorcas Eldred, our social chairman, really did a fine job of organizing the dance. We want to extend our congratulations and best wishes to Pete Mahady who became engaged last week-end to Donald Birchall from Nashua, N. H. Pete almost got smothered when the news of her engagement rang out through the house.

Last week we entertained Miss Jane Withrow, the traveling secretary of Sigma Kappa. A tea was held last Friday afternoon from 4:30-6:00 in her honor to celebrate Founder's Day. Mrs. Hunt, Hope Byrne, Justine Richardson, and Pat Records entertained Miss Winthrop for dinner at the Kingston Inn last Friday night. Jean Richardson was visited last week-end by Ann Sheehan from Providence. Jean Leys, from Newbury, was the guest of Pauline Bric and Ann Bloom over the week-end.

Organists Convene

The Westerly Chapter of the R. I. Branch of American Guild Organists met to study procedures in teaching the organ, organ theory and registration, November 19th, at Edwards Hall. The hosts and guests inspected the organs at the various churches, such as St. Francis Church of the Ascension, Wakefield Baptist and the Peace Congregationalist. After the inspection, the chapter had a social hour at the Kingston Inn.

The organists of the churches of Wakefield and Narragansett in addition to Professor Lee C. McCauley, Doctor T. Stephan Crawford and Professor Ralph E. Brown were hosts.
